WELCOME!

The Passport to Nature has been created with you in mind — those who want to explore the wild outdoors, experience new things & meet nice people. To make the most of your Passport, here are five basic steps to plan your next adventure & get involved in the work of The Couchiching Conservancy.

- 1 PLAN your next adventure. Read this booklet for event info.
- 2 REGISTER asap when available. (Events fill up quickly)
- 3 ATTEND! Don't forget a water bottle and good shoes for in person events.
- 4 SHARE your experience with friends & use #PassportToNature online.
- 5 SIGN UP to get involved with The Couchiching Conservancy.

OUR THANKS!

Our sincere thanks to the businesses that have supported the Passport to Nature and our conservation efforts. These environmentally-minded businesses are making our community better! Consider supporting them as well — SHOP LOCAL. SUPPORT LOCAL.

Thanks to the wonderful people who have dedicated countless hours to making the Passport to Nature a success: Kathy Hunt, Jamie Ross, Jane Ball, Janet Machan, Karen Fox, Tanya Clark, Joelle Burnie, and Tom Wilson. A special thank you to Stefanie Moy-Shuster as well for the original booklet design and layout.

As always, thank you to our Board of Directors for all of their support and to the volunteers for helping to make the Passport a success!

THE PASSPORT TO NATURE IS ORGANIZED BY

The Couchiching Conservancy is a non-profit, non-government land trust dedicated to protecting nature today, for current and future generations.

Our work is powered by community members, supporters, businesses, volunteers and foundations. Since 1993, we have helped protect thousands of acres of wilderness – an area double the size of the City of Orillia!

The land on which we operate is the territory of Anishnaabeg, Haudenosaunee, Wendat and Metis Peoples. This territory is covered by the Upper Canada Treaties.

Want to learn more and get involved with protecting nature in our area?

TRAIL USER ETIQUETTE

TREAD LIGHTLY

Visit the Reserves for nature appreciation, hiking, photography, snowshoeing and bird watching.

KNOW YOUR ROUTE & STAY ON IT

Download a map, and stay on the marked trails. Be prepared for the conditions. Let someone know about your plans.

RESPECT NATURE & OTHERS

Leave no trace, don't take from nature, and keep your dog on a leash so everyone (and the wildlife) can enjoy nature to the fullest. Please pack out any garbage.

BE AWARE

Pay attention to your surroundings & changes in the weather. Watch for plants & animals, make space for others.

PLAN YOUR OWN OUTING TO A NATURE RESERVE

Did you know that many of the Nature Reserves The Couchiching Conservancy helps to protect have marked walking trails and footpaths? On-going care of these Reserves, including seasonal trail maintenance, are made possible by our members, volunteers and supporters. Marked trails and trail maps are available for a number of these Reserves. Nature Reserves with trails and footpaths include:

SIMCOE COUNTY

- Adams Nature Reserve
- Alexander Hope Smith Nature Reserve
- Carthew Bay Nature Reserve
- Church Woods Nature Reserve
- Grant's Woods Nature Reserve
- Jennett Woods Nature Reserve
- Scout Valley Conservation Easement
- Thomas C. Agnew Nature Reserve

KAWARTHA LAKES

- Cameron Ranch Nature Reserve, Carden Alvar Provincial Park
- Kris Starr Sanctuary
- North Bear Nature Reserve
- Ron Reid Nature Reserve
- Windmill Ranch - Sedge Wren

Find information on these Nature Reserves and download a trail map on our website: www.couchichingconserv.ca. Click on Nature Reserve & Easement Map from the home page, or hover of What We Do and you can access it from the drop down menu. There are clickable links on this page that will tell you more about the Reserve and give you access to maps.

When you visit a Nature Reserve, please always be prepared for the weather and conditions and let someone know where you are. Any outdoor activity has inherent risks – use of our trails systems is done so at your own risk. Please ensure that if you bring your dog, that it is kept on a leash at all times.

CYCLING SUNDIAL CREEK

LEADERS: DORTHEA HANGAARD, KATHY HUNT, JANE BONSTEEL & BOB SULLIVAN

This is planned as an in person event and will adjust if need be. Registration is required.

Grab your bike and join a guided cycling tour of an important watershed within the City of Orillia. You will learn about a hidden gem in our community – Sundial Creek. Discover why this rare cold water stream, a spawning ground for brook trout and a refuge from the urban landscape for many species, needs to be protected and restored.

This will be a leisurely 15-20 km bike ride, beginning at Couchiching Beach Park. We will explore the flow of Sundial Creek, making stops at Grant Wetland Nature Reserve and Wilson's Point Wetland. The route will take us through neighbourhood streets and along the Lightfoot and Millennial trails.

Passport to NATURE JOURNALING

NATURE JOURNAL HIKE

Children and their families will participate in an online workshop where they will learn about creating a homemade Nature Journal, and then view a walk in the woods with a wildlife educator to discover a variety of ways of recording what they see and hear. During the weekend of July 17 and 18, the Grant's Woods' trail will be flagged with points of interest, but families are welcome to explore any of the Couchiching Conservancy trails. Kids can submit their favourite journal page in order to win a prize in our draw by July 30.

PLANTING A NATIVE GARDEN

LEADER: KRISTIN EGO MACPHAIL OF EGO'S GARDEN CENTRE

This is a Zoom presentation with a maximum of 100 log-ins

This 1-hour online workshop would benefit people who are looking at doing a fall planting of native plants in their yards and gardens. Our discussion with our expert from Ego's Garden Centre, Kristin Ego MacPhail, will include how to plant, in what soils, the ongoing care, and the long-term benefits of including native plants on your property.

Because this workshop will take place in the late summer, we'll start with spring and summer videos of the plants in the Ego's gardens so participants can see size and colour. We'll discuss the benefits of different types of native shrubs and flowers and the ways to keep them blooming by planting them in the right soil and location. Finally, we'll have an opportunity to ask some questions of our expert.

NEIGHBOURHOOD CLEAN UP

This is planned as an in person event, and capacity will depend on health guidelines

This fall, let's give back to nature by cleaning up the places we all love to explore. You can join us for the group clean-up at Wilson's Point Wetland* or choose to pick up garbage throughout your neighbourhood with individuals in your bubble. Either way, let's keep our natural spaces clean this season.

**Depending on the social gathering restrictions due to the pandemic, there may be a limit to the number of people who can attend.*

Garbage bags will be provided at the group clean up, but please bring your own gloves.

We can help you spend more time outdoors!

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

Please register for the meeting through our website.

Join us for our 2022 Annual General Meeting!

The annual general meeting is the buzz of The Conservancy calendar. With between 250–300 local environmentalists from volunteers, to donors, to founders and board members it is your chance to get to know us better! Members can vote and if you are new to the conservancy, you can see how we run, ask questions about our work, nature reserves and impact. Absolutely all are welcome.

Please check our website for updates and registration. We send reading materials prior to the meeting through our e-newsletter.

Whether it is online or in person this year, we would love to see you there, standing up for nature!

PASSPORT TO NATURE CANADA

Passports to Nature in Canada is your invitation to experience the marvels of our natural world in communities across Canada. Each passport describes guided events that are open to all and often free. Where in nature will you travel this year?

A special thank you to The Gosling Foundation for inspiring environmental organizations and supporting engagement.

FIELD NOTES FROM AN UNINTENTIONAL BIRDER

by Julia Zarankin

When Julia Zarankin saw her first red-winged blackbird at the age of thirty-five, she didn't expect that it would change her life. Recently divorced and auditioning hobbies during a stressful career transition, she stumbled on birdwatching, initially out of curiosity for the strange breed of humans who wear multi-pocketed vests, carry spotting scopes and discuss the finer points of optics with disturbing fervour. What she never could have predicted was that she would become one of them. Not only would she come to identify proudly as a birder, but birding would ultimately lead her to find love, uncover a new language and lay down her roots.

Julia Zarankin is a writer and self-proclaimed birdsplainer with a particular fondness for sewage lagoons. Her writing has appeared in The Walrus, Orion Magazine, Threepenny Review, Antioch Review, Birding Magazine, Maisonneuve, The New Quarterly, Ontario Nature and The Globe and Mail. She lives in Toronto, ON.

TWO TREES MAKE A FOREST: IN SEARCH OF MY FAMILY'S PAST AMONG TAIWAN'S MOUNTAINS AND COASTS

by Jessica J. Lee

Winner of the 2020 Hilary Weston Writers' Trust Non-Fiction Prize and shortlisted for CBC Canada Reads 2021, Two Trees Make a Forest is a national bestseller and was listed in the top books of 2020 by both CBC and The Globe & Mail.

A chance discovery of letters written by her immigrant grandfather leads Jessica J. Lee to her ancestral homeland, Taiwan. There, she seeks his story while growing closer to the land he knew.

Jessica hikes mountains home to Formosan Flamecrests, birds found nowhere else on earth, and swims in a lake of drowned cedars. She bikes flatlands where Spoonbills alight by fish farms and learns about a tree whose fruit can float in the ocean for years, awaiting landfall. Joyously attentive to the natural world, Lee also turns a critical gaze upon colonialist explorers who mapped the land and named plants, relying on and often effacing the labor and knowledge of local communities.

BLUMOOSE ALVAR RIDE

Starting and finishing in Couchiching Beach Park, Orillia, riders can choose from the 85km or the 140km routes, which travel along the beautiful, quiet, tarmac and dirt roads of this area. Both rides will encompass the extraordinary Carden Alvar Provincial Park. The Carden Alvar is a rare and unique ecosystem, its grassland, wetlands and woodlands hosting over 230 bird species, 140 butterfly/dragonfly species and 450 plants. The Carden Alvar gained Provincial Park status in 2014 to protect and preserve its spectacular environment.

WINE CLUB WITH PELEE ISLAND WINERY!

How would you like to enjoy the fruit of the vine while helping to support conservation in your area? The Conservancy is pleased to make available fine vintages from Pelee Island Winery. There's a wine to suit all tastes including chardonnay, sauvignon blanc, merlot, and pinot noir to name a few. All are VQA, helping to support the Ontario agricultural community.

For a few years now we have run a wine club of folks who like to receive the order forms on a regular basis. Orders are placed twice a year, once in spring and once in late autumn.

You can mix and match your order, and prices are the same as wine purchased through the LCBO. Orders are to be picked up at the Grant's Woods Conservation Centre; no home delivery available but we do have a volunteer here to help you load your vehicle.

CORRIDORS CAMPAIGN

The creation of wildlife corridors has become more urgent in the face of a rapidly changing climate. Corridors of protected wilderness matter. These are the bridges for species to move. Corridors reduce fragmentation, which has a big impact on species survival. A UN report that concludes a million species are threatened with extinction, and the fact that many Canadian provinces could become 'climate refuges' for animals heading north to escape rising temperatures. We are working towards creating the starting point of the wildest spaces left in Ontario.

The reality has been reflected in The Couchiching Conservancy's approach to updating its natural heritage acquisition strategy. Working with partners over a span of two years, we have developed the document Conservation Priorities for The Couchiching Conservancy. It identifies several high-priority zones within the Conservancy's coverage area. Through this process, it became clear the importance of the Black River Wildlands region and Carden Alvar.

Mapping was done of Species at Risk occurrences, connection to existing protected areas (with land trusts, Conservation Authorities, parks, etc), waterways, forest cover and more. Consideration was also given for highest threats, protections in place, fragmentation and more.

With increasing development pressure in our area, we are hoping to raise $1.4M for the Corridors Campaign. As of March 2021 we still need to raise $500K – so every donation is important and moves us closer to our land conservation objectives.

Your donation to the Corridors Campaign powers the Conservancy in efforts to move forward various protection projects throughout this region.

PROTECT NATURE ON THE GROUND BY VOLUNTEERING!

If you love the outdoors, are passionate about land conservation, and are looking to connect with like-minded individuals, join us! As a volunteer, you play an important role in driving conservation efforts in the region.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES:

- Ambassadors
- Bat monitoring
- Frog monitoring
- Plant monitoring
- Water quality monitoring
- Land steward
- Property maintenance
- and more!

Volunteers are the heart of The Couchiching Conservancy. They enable us to steward and manage over 30 Nature Reserves, drive projects and campaigns, and help build a community of supporters working to protect nature in the region.
