

Volunteers

We are doing more for nature, together. Volunteers help us care for the nature reserves, put together mailings, monitor for Species at Risk, do maintenance...the list goes on and on. We are so grateful to all of the people listed here who volunteer their time.

As an environmental student at Lakehead University, I wanted to gain more hands-on experience through fieldwork. Volunteering with the Couchiching Conservancy has helped me improve my plant and animal ID skills, gain experience in the field, and make connections through the conservancy. These experiences will help me when I pursue an environmental career!

- Emily Hawton is a volunteer (Snake Board Surveys, Youth Stewardship Program and Ecological Land Classification).
